Press Release

Newly-opened international Terminal 1 at Yangon International Airport welcomes its first flight

- National carrier Myanmar National Airlines' first flight will take off from T1 today
- YIA welcomes and invites passengers for a more comfortable experience at T1

YANGON – 20 March 2016 – Today marked a significant milestone in Myanmar's aviation history as Yangon International Airport (YIA) sent off the first flight from Myanmar's national carrier, Myanmar National Airlines at the newly-launched international Terminal 1 at Yangon International Airport.

YIA is a key gateway into Myanmar and following its opening on 12 March 2016, T1's inaugural departure will pave the way to cater for the growing demand for aviation services as well as better quality and efficient services.

The new T1 will give an enhanced passengers' and guests' service experience. At YIA, our staff strives to leave a lasting warmth of Myanmar to all passengers and guests.

YIA currently serves 28 international airlines and looks forward to welcoming more international airlines and guests.
